

The Crescent Collection

AT ARDEN, SE10

LIVE WHERE LIFE HAPPENS

At THE HEART OF IT ALL

The Crescent Collection at Arden marks the final chapter in the remarkable transformation of Parkside, a major regeneration in the heart of South East London.

Over the past twelve years, the former Heathside and Lethbridge estate has evolved into a thriving new neighbourhood, delivering over 1,200 new homes and a vibrant sense of community.

Set around beautifully landscaped gardens and offering concierge services, underground parking and a range of resident-only amenities. The Crescent Collection is a final release of studio and two bedroom apartments.

Positioned in a prime location within Arden, these homes enjoy exceptional views, refined interior finishes, and immediate access to the best of what this flourishing neighbourhood has to offer.

The VISION FOR ARDEN

PETE WOODFORD
DIRECTOR AT BPTW,
ARCHITECTS OF ARDEN

“Arden is something unique: the spacious homes are built with a focus on the quality of craftsmanship and a design which cleverly connects them with the outdoors and the wider landscape.”

Architect Pete Woodford is a director at BPTW, an award-winning and innovative studio with over 30 years of experience in transforming not just physical spaces, but people’s lives.

For the past 8 years, he’s been a leading director working on the masterplanning and design of Parkside, which dovetails perfectly with his interest in creating sustainable communities.

WHAT DO YOU THINK MAKES ARDEN SPECIAL?

There are so many exciting things happening in Lewisham at the moment and the skyline is constantly changing, but what we have at Arden is something unique: they are spacious homes built with a focus on the quality of craftsmanship and a design which cleverly connects them with the outdoors and the wider landscape.

TELL US ABOUT THE DESIGN OF ARDEN

While some of the other buildings within Parkside were deliberately designed to create a contemporary landmark, Arden takes its cues from the rich brick vernacular of nearby Blackheath. Trees spill between the buildings throughout the scheme and openings in the buildings have been designed to afford views of the park from different aspects.

HOW DOES ARDEN SIT WITHIN THE WIDER PARKSIDE DEVELOPMENT?

Arden forms part of the regeneration of what were previously two separate sites at Parkside. The new design and layout unifies the scheme for the first time around a beautifully landscaped linear park, made of a series of play spaces and formal gardens which culminates in an area of protected woodland with mature trees. The buildings make the most of the dramatic topography and afford far-reaching views; importantly, every home has a direct connection to the park.

WHAT ABOUT THE APARTMENTS?

Many are dual-aspect, echoing the mansion block typology within the four crescent quarters. Peabody has over 160 years of experience and expertise in managing property in London, so these homes have been designed to stand the test of time. Layouts of each and every apartment have been optimised for comfort and convenience, prioritising the maximum use of all the available natural light, creating ample storage space and ensuring the balconies are integral to layouts so that, in good weather, they act as an additional room.

A Location

LIKE NO OTHER

Conveniently positioned between the vibrant, cultural districts of Lewisham and Deptford, historic Greenwich and the naturally picturesque Blackheath - residents of Arden have all the advantages of a well-connected Zone 2 location. The lush, open-green spaces of Greenwich Park and Blackheath Common, fantastic restaurants, lively bars and world-renowned music venues and museums are all on your doorstep to enjoy.

GREENWICH

Leafy, family-friendly Greenwich lies 5 miles from central London and has long been regarded as the ideal antidote to busy, urban life. With its village make up, much of Greenwich's charm lies in its attractive streetscapes and mix of Georgian and Victorian architecture.

Home to a number of destination shopping streets and artisan stores, among the most celebrated is Heap's Sausages - a farm shop and deli that sells a range of British cheese, wines, charcuterie and larder essentials. Nearby, a much-Instagrammed shopfront is home to florist Karen Woolven who, before establishing her shop in 2012, arranged flowers for various A-list parties around the world.

A major draw for locals is also the much-loved Greenwich Market. With its huge range of freshly made goodies and sumptuous street food, there is also a vast collection of antiques, fashion and jewellery stalls full of rare and colourful finds.

The Royal Docks water-sports

To the north of Greenwich Village you will note a change of pace and atmosphere. Home to the O2 Arena – one of the world’s most iconic music and entertainment venues – and one of Britain’s only cable cars. There is an energy and vibrancy to this corner of the capital that is further evident in the range of river water-sports on offer.

A range of traditional British pubs and foodie hot spots are also located around the sun-soaked water’s edge, offering a generous selection of hearty favourites.

Lewisham Farmer's Market

LEWISHAM & DEPTFORD

From museums and food markets to music festivals and performing art, over the last 10 years Lewisham has evolved into a vibrant metropolis. Named the London Borough of Culture in 2022, the borough received £1.35m to deliver a year-long programme of activities that placed culture at the heart of its communities.

Located to the north of Lewisham, is the buzzy centre of Deptford. Forged on the city's great industrial heritage, the area has emerged in recent years as one of the fastest-growing regeneration and foodie hotspots, with a high street brimming with independently run shops and restaurants.

Village Brewery (Archie & Louis)

Among them is Villages Brewery, a micro-brewery and Tap Room set in three railway arches off Deptford High Street. Started in 2016 by brothers Archie and Louis Village, their aim from the outset was to place the business within a strong community.

For somewhere that continues that local community vibe, nearby Brockley Market is up there. This Saturday morning market can be found every week at Lewisham College car park, less than a 7 minute bike ride from Arden.

The main focus here is locally-sourced seasonal food that offers everything from fresh seafood, fruit and veg, organic breads and cheeses, to top-quality breed meats.

There is also a beautiful range of flowers, natural wines and craft beer.

“Deptford is like an island within the city. It’s a kind and warm community and there are lots of people trying out new things.”

GREENWICH PARK & BLACKHEATH

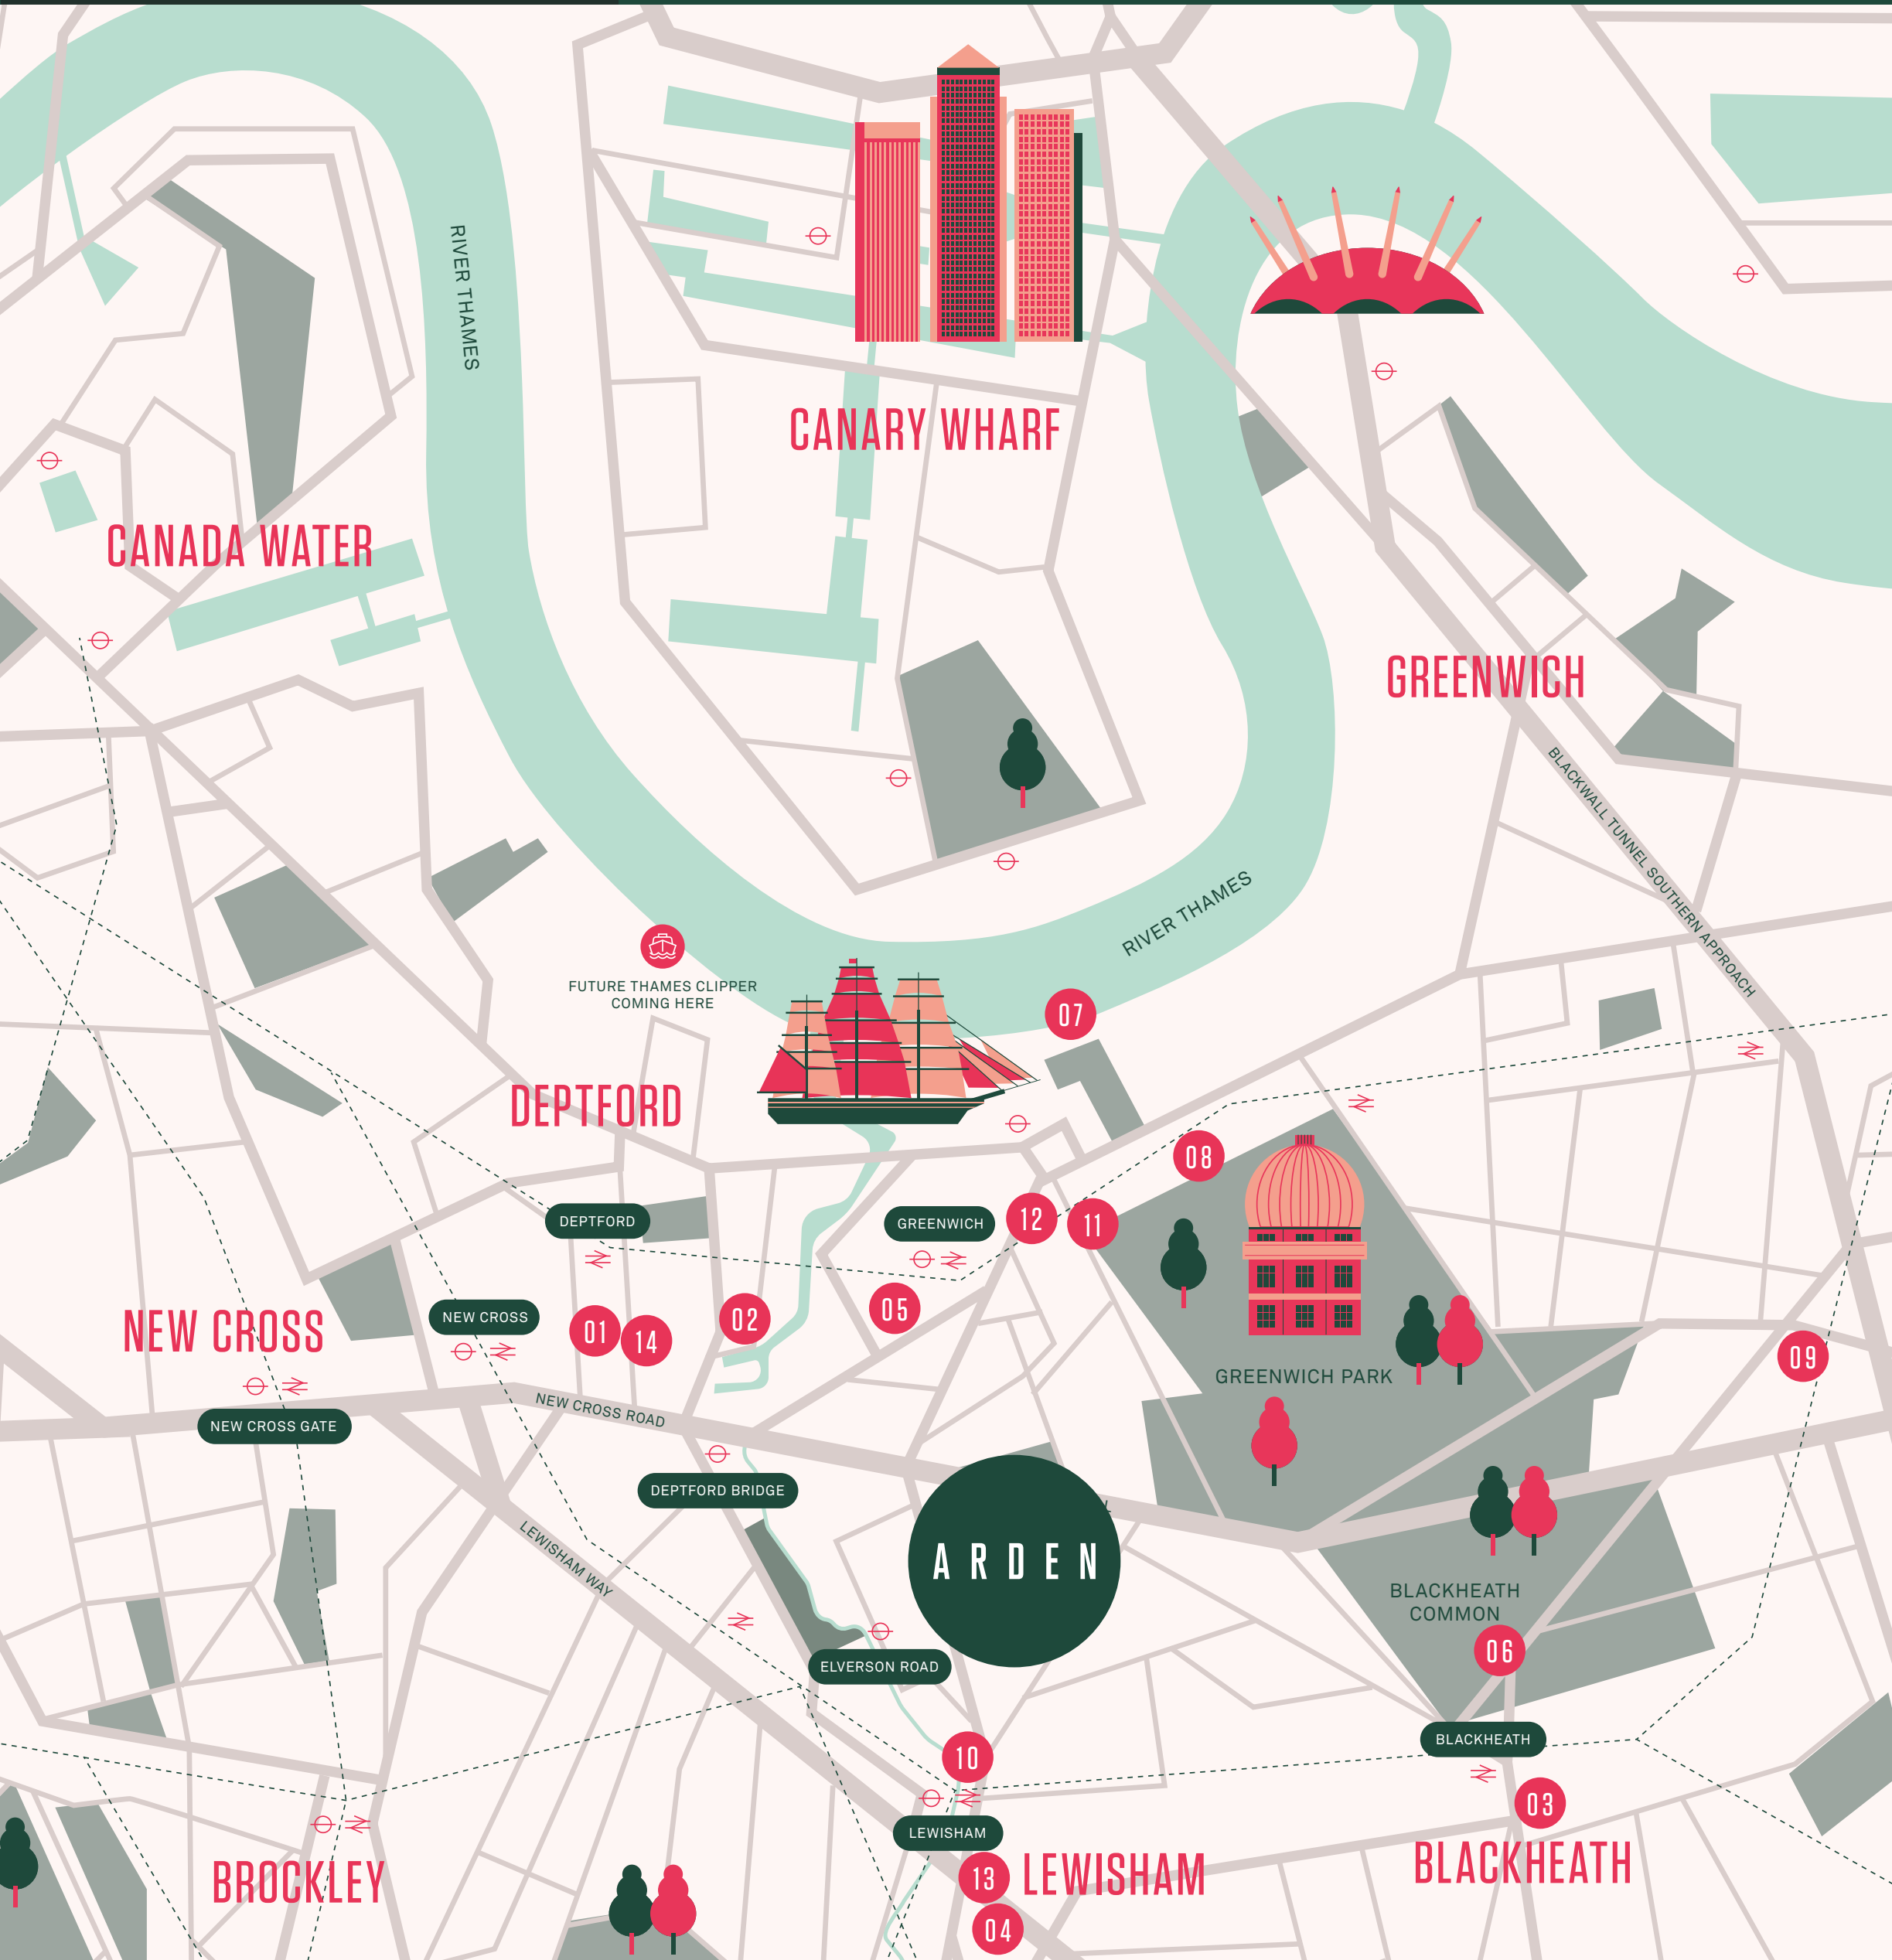

Living in a city means that access to nature is by definition limited. But that's not the case with Arden, which stands a short distance from acres of green spaces at Greenwich Park and Blackheath, both just a 10 minute walk from your door.

Covering 183 acres, Greenwich Park is London's oldest Royal Park and is home to a small herd of deer as well as a range of birds and wildlife. Situated on a hillside, the park enjoys one of the city's most iconic views across the river Thames to St Paul's Cathedral, Canary Wharf and beyond.

Known to all Londoners for being the starting place of the annual London marathon, Blackheath's 211 acres of windswept grasslands and heathland is where locals come to fly kites, go for jogs or walk their dogs.

With a wealth of outdoor exercise classes, boot camps and yoga sessions taking place on the heath every day, it also hosts a variety of events for the local community throughout the year including fireworks displays, music festivals and charity races.

IN NATURE

IN THE CITY

Arden takes its cues from the rich brick vernacular of nearby Blackheath, with the design of the buildings making the most of natural light throughout.

Set within landscaped communal gardens and surrounded by mature woodland, the apartments at Arden have been designed to dissolve the boundaries between the inside and outside, making the most of the spectacular location and views.

Maximising the sustainability and environmental considerations across the development, the buildings at Arden have been designed to incorporate green roofs. Working harmoniously with the neighbouring architecture and greenery, Arden will provide a varied ecological habitat, as well as an attractive visual backdrop for residents living in nearby buildings.

DETAIL

Each apartment has been configured to make the most of Arden's natural surroundings. All homes come with balconies or terraces to dissolve boundaries between indoor and outdoor living.

Open-plan living spaces feature floor-to-ceiling windows and generous private balconies. Spaces have been specifically designed in a timeless style, waiting for owners to introduce their own decorative designs.

Fresh white walls combined with silver-grey oak flooring, introduces a stylish Scandinavian aesthetic to these contemporary homes.

Spacious kitchens with sleek minimal finishes are designed as versatile spaces which aim to make daily tasks that much easier.

Design features include top-quality integrated appliances and joinery in pale grey with soft-closing doors, snow-white polished work surfaces and elegant under-mounted sinks. Discreetly placed warm LEDs set under the cabinets provide clear task lighting, while splashbacks are covered with Spanish-made metro-style tiles in a sophisticated anthracite grey.

The vast majority of apartments have main bedrooms which benefit from en-suite bathrooms. Contemporary white bathware is paired with eye-catching sea-green metro tiles and plenty of useful storage space.

A neutral colour palette forms the basis of the bedrooms throughout Arden with main bedrooms featuring contemporary fitted wardrobes, providing plenty of storage space.

With underfloor heating throughout the apartment, bathrooms are complete with carefully chosen features that include thermostatic shower valves, top-quality bathware and chrome heated towel rails.

We at Peabody have a proud legacy of helping generations of homebuyers and residents find their place in thriving neighbourhoods, communities and homes for over 160 years.

The team at Peabody New Homes is dedicated to finding you a home that is more than just a place to live. A place you can call your own. A place to belong. A place that you're proud to call home.

BUILDING HISTORY

Formed over 160 years ago by the American financier and philanthropist George Peabody, Peabody is one of the UK's oldest and largest housing associations responsible for more than 107,000 homes and around 220,000 residents across London and the Home Counties.

CUSTOMER FOCUS

Whether it's your first or forever home, we know that buying a new place can be a demanding time. Our sales team is committed to guiding you through the process and helping you every step of the way. Rated "Excellent" on Trustpilot, we're proud to offer you a service that makes a difference.

QUALITY, DESIGN & SUSTAINABILITY

Peabody's reputation is one of the most respected in the housing industry renowned for quality, multi-award-winning and innovative design. We work with industry experts and continually monitor quality throughout the building process to reduce our impact on climate change, lessen our carbon footprint and create properties people are proud to call home.

Our Greener Homes Programme is our commitment to the environment and will aim to minimise our impact on the planet and support thriving neighbourhoods.

SOCIAL IMPACT

Our social purpose is why we exist. We re-invest the surplus made from the sale of our homes to provide more homes and services to those who need it most. We deliver services that support customers and the wider communities that we work in, and invest in local projects through our Community Foundation.

TRACK RECORD OF URBAN REGENERATION

Here are just a few examples of where we have recently delivered award-winning urban regeneration in London.

SOUTHMERE

Southmere offers a collection of 1, 2 and 3 bedroom homes, set within a vibrant waterside community. Homes at Southmere include panoramic views towards the City whilst being surrounded by abundant green space. Designed to integrate harmoniously with the lakeside setting and leafy natural surroundings, elegant brick-built Lakeshore and Skyline buildings are linked by peaceful gardens and inviting play spaces.
